

*instinctools Service Offerings

*instinctools provides software and services in Information Management. Being experts in this area we design and develop solutions for even complex challenges. We offer a broad range of services from profound consulting and analysis work, via development of integrative information management solutions to maintenance and support. Our highly experienced innovative team delivers best practice solutions adapted to the individual needs of our customers. Comprehensive technology skills, knowledge about usage of up-to-date methods and tools are always at hand. Our offerings target medium sized businesses and enterprise departments.

Services

- IT Consulting, Project Management, SOA Architectures
- Development of individual Java applications making use of economical nearshore resources and established processes, methods and tools
- Project Services for Open Source Software
  - Analysis and selection of adequate software
  - Determination of requirements for individual adaptations
  - Customizing of design and functionality
  - Enhancement and integration in existing environment
  - Installation on customer site
  - Maintenance and support of daily operation

Solutions for

- Portals, websites, intra-/extranet
- Social software, communities and support platforms
- ERP applications, support and processes
- Enterprise Application Integration
- Data integration, consolidation and migration
- Information Management

Industry Knowhow

We successfully delivered projects in different industries and are skilled in processes of following segments:

- Automotive
- Mechanical Engineering
- Media Industry
- Trade and Services